I am a Sydney based music commentator, author, radio presenter, manager and journalist.

I am writing to you in support of Eric Collier and Janine Garvey (No PROMISES) who are seeking funding to record their third album Redemption Day, which is a bookend album to their second album The River released last November.

I started working with No PROMISES mid 2021.

I very quickly learned that they are exceptionally talented musicians in their own right, but put them together and that's where the magic happens.

Eric and Janine are prolific songwriters and masterful storytellers. Their work is of a very high quality and I'm surprised they have not been signed by a label already.

They are both very driven and ambitious, the fact that they only formed as a duo back in 2020 and already have two albums out is testament to their incredible and professional work ethic.

I have no doubt that they will achieve everything they set out to do, the only thing that may hold them back is their regional location and the funds to make it happen.

I wish them both well in their endeavours and hope that they get the funding they both deserve.

Feel free to contact me if you'd like to discuss this further.

All the best
